

Working Papers in Anthropology

UQ Anthropology, School of Social Science

Venue: Room 443, Michie(09)

Thursdays 3.00-4.00pm

Semester 2, 2016

Thursday 11 August: Michael Aird and Amelia Radke, School of Social Science, UQ

Indigenous identity and imposed cultural protocols

Thursday 25 August: Dr Fernanda Claudio, School of Social Science, UQ

Marginalizing the marginalized: Social processes that contribute to the dis-abling of prisoners with intellectual disability

Thursday 8 September: Alex Smith PhD Candidate, School of Social Science, UQ

"This is how I'm supposed to be a mum": The body work of breastfeeding, milk insufficiency, and milk sharing

Thursday 22 September: Dr Susannah Chapman, T C Beirne School of Law, UQ

New varieties, agricultural experts, and native farmers: The politics and power of recognition in British Colonial Gambia

Thursday 6 October: Dr Graeme Were, School of Social Science, UQ

After Doi Moi: Representing national narratives and party achievements in post-socialist Vietnam

Thursday 20 October: Martin Espig, PhD Candidate, School of Social Science, UQ

'Taking a hit for the greater good': Transforming places and ethics in the becoming of the energy capital of Queensland, Australia

All Welcome