

Symposium

Mining, Materiality and Cultural Heritage

Friday May 17 2013

UQ Anthropology Museum, Level 1 Michie Building, St Lucia

ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS

---

9:45am Registration opens

10.00am MC (Dr Diana Young) welcomes guests and introduces Symposium themes.

SESSION 1: Discussant – Dr Diana Young

10.15am Mining and cultural change on Lihir: An interview with John Pong
Mr John Pong and Dr Kirsty Gillespie

10.45am Black is not necessarily Green: Gorenpul-Dandrabin perspectives on mining, national parks and cultural heritage management on North Stradbroke Island
Associate Professor Annie Ross, Brian Coghill, Shane Coghill

11.15am Morning tea

SESSION 2: Discussant – Prof Ian Lilley

11.45am Digging a place: A cultural history of mining in the Pilbara
Dr Janice Baker

12.15pm Building as mining
Professor Luis Feduchi

12.45pm Lunch

SESSION 3: Discussant – Dr Andrew Sneddon

- 2.00pm      ‘All our sites are of high significance’: Reflections from recent work in the Hunter Valley – archaeological and indigenous perspectives
Mary Jean Sutton and Jillian Huntley
- 2.30pm      Limits of acceptable change: New cultural heritage management options in the Hunter Valley
Dr Luke Godwin
- 3.00am      Afternoon tea

SESSION 4: Discussant – Dr Kirsty Gillespie

- 3.30pm      An enigmatic watershed: Resource contestation, knowledge, and uncertainty
Dr Sally Babidge
- 4.00pm      Value or values?: The commodification of cultural heritage in the mining boom
Dr Andrew Sneddon
- 4.30pm      Closing discussion
- 4.45pm      Function concludes